Celebrating Henderson Mayors

The Mayors, 1953 to 2022 - Dr. James French to Debra March, first Mayor to most recent Mayor, they are a special group of thirteen public servants who left their stamp on Henderson History.

Join The Henderson Society as we call on Henderson's living Mayors of the past to help us remember our history from the perspective of Henderson's top office.

It starts with a vision—in 2013 Windom Kimsey, owner of TSK Architects, collaborated with local residents and city officials to create a plan for the redevelopment of the Water Street District. Join us as he shares the exciting updates and on-going developments throughout Downtown Henderson which includes his own urban infill mixed-use project, SouthEnd on Water. In the spirit of redevelopment, in 2019 Windom helped to organize an international design competition that redefined the nearby Townsite Homes and featured winners from Las Vegas, China, and Sweden. Water Street is the place to be...come find out why!
